FAQs

How do I find out if my employer offers a matching gift program?

Look on the list above for your employer's name. Don't see it? Ask your company's human resources department if they offer a matching gift benefit. (And if they don't offer it at present, you might want to ask them to consider doing so.)

What if my employer does not allow matching gifts to a religious organization?

Some employers do not allow matching gifts to religious organizations but will allow matching gifts to religious associated schools. Check with your human resource department. Your gift may have to be designated to Trinity Lutheran School in order to qualify for your employer's matching gift program.

How do I apply for a matching gift?

Check with your human resources department for instructions on how to apply. They may ask you to complete a paper form or apply online. Whatever the process, most applications only ask for your name, address, and details about your gift -- it's easy!

Where do I send my matching gift form?

Please complete your employer's matching gift form and send it along with your contribution to Trinity Lutheran School.

What happens after I send in the form?

We will then complete our portion of the form and return it to your employer, who in turn sends an additional donation to Trinity on your behalf.

What if I'm retired?

Many businesses offer this benefit to their retirees as well. Just ask.

Can my spouse also apply for a matching gift?

Yes! If your spouse's employer also offers a matching gift program, you may be able to apply for an additional match to your gift.

What if I made a recent donation but didn't apply for a matching gift?

Many employers will still match your gift after the fact. Check with your company's Human Resources about their requirements.

What if I have other questions about matching gifts?
